WERE ON PAROLE

Under Suspended Sentence for Previous Offense and Suspension is Withdrawn by Judge Raymond owing to Recent "Outbreak."

The band of Snake Indians, who under the leadership of the notorious Crazy Snake have been chasing themselves around the Creek nation, for several weeks, were sentenced by Judge Raymond in the federal court at Muskogee last week to two years each in the penitentiary at Fort Leavenworth. The band has attained much notoriety at times, through the strenuous efforts of space writers, but are simply a poor miserable aggregation of discontented Indians, whose pitiable efforts to prevent the settlement of their country, have been dignified by the name of "outbreaks." About a year ago after one of these blood curdling "outbreaks," the ten men who were sentenced yesterday were brought before Judge Thomas and sentenced to two years each in the penitentiary. The sentence was later suspended and they were released on parole pending their good behavior. When arranged yesterday Marshall Bennett asked that the suspension be removed. Judge Raymond sustained the request and they will now be removed to Leavenworth to serve their sentences. The Indians on whom the sentence will fall are:

Chitto Harjo, alias "Crazy Snake," alias "Wilson Jones." Gilbert Johnson, a Seminole. Chotika James. Abram McIntosh. Lewis Mitchell. Lewis Harjo, alias "Lewis Yards." Squirrel, alias "Clo Harjo." John Timothy. George Simmons. Little Tiger, alias "Cotchochee." Chitto Harjo is the leader of the band, and has always opposed the settlement of the Creek country, on the grounds that the government had broken faith with the Creeks, and was violating its treaty agreement in opening up the country.

STATEHOOD BILL.

Oklahoma Will be Allowed but Two Representatives.

The sub-committee on the Oklahoma statehood bill, consisting of Messrs. Flynn, Powers and Moon have completed their work and are ready to report tomorrow to the full committee. The Flynn bill, with but few changes, was unanimously agreed upon. The section permitting the addition of Indian territory, either by piecemeal or in whole, is just as contained in original bill. The proposition for a second constitutional convention in the event of failure of the first one was stricken out. Delegate Flynn tried strenuously to secure three representatives in congress, but was compelled to accept two, in view of the fact that all the other districts were based on the last census.

Cough Settled on her Lungs.
"My daughter had a terrible cough which settled on her lungs," says N. Jackson, of Danville, Ill. "We tried a great many remedies without relief until we gave her Foley's Kidney and Bladder Pills. Before she had taken a box she was cured. I can truly say that these pills are the best I have ever used." Sold by People's Drug Store. dw

SEAY RETURNS

From Washington and Says Oklahoma Will Soon be a State

FLYNN'S MEASURE

Providing for Immediate Statehood for Oklahoma, he Says, Will Find Passage During the Short Session of Congress.

Ex Governor A. J. Seay, of Oklahoma, who has just returned home from a six weeks' stay in Washington, where he went to talk statehood for Oklahoma, believes that Delegate Flynn's bill will be passed in the house at this session of congress and that it would pass the senate if the measure could be acted upon before adjournment next summer. He is confident that statehood will come at the short session. Governor Seay has always been opposed to making Oklahoma and the Indian territory into one state at the same time. He is anxious that Oklahoma be given all the advantages that would arise in permitting her to organize her state government without any intervention on the part of Indian territory.

After referring to the efforts of the single statehood delegates in a light vein, the governor delivered the following bouquet to his compatriot, Dennis Flynn:

"Flynn told me positively that he would not even permit his name to be used by his friends and I believe he is sincerely opposed to making the race. It is another question whether the nomination will be forced upon him. Flynn is tired and is rankling under the abuse that has been heaped upon him by his enemies. If you saw how he works and how little commendation he gets for what he does you would not blame him. If I were in his place I would feel like quitting the job as soon as possible. I do not believe that Flynn, with his future prospects, can afford to retire at this time. Conditions change too swiftly in Oklahoma, no man can get out of the harness with assurance that he can strike the same pace a few years later."

MURDEROUS ATTACK

Made on K. W. Whitmore, of the Checotah Enquirer.

During a dispute over the settling of some accounts Wednesday morning, K. W. Whitmore, editor of the Checotah Enquirer, was stabbed and seriously wounded by G. F. Crane, of that place. The weapon used was a sharp paper cutter and the instrument entered the groin and penetrated almost to the backbone. Medical assistance was summoned and at a late hour last night Mr. Whitmore was reported resting fairly well, but the full extent of his injuries had not been ascertained. Crane states that Whitmore's brother, who was present, attempted to draw a gun on him, and that he seized the paper cutter in self-defense. Witnesses of the affair characterize it as a murderous assault without justification. Crane was arrested shortly after the affray and removed to Eufaula, the nearest town having a court commissioner, where he will be held pending the outcome of his victim's injuries.

BADGETT MERCANTILE CO.

Reorganized as The Badgett-Sanders Mercantile Co.

The W. R. Badgett Mercantile Company has been reorganized under the name the Badgett-Sanders Mercantile Company, and articles of incorporation for the new firm have been applied for at South McAlester. The capital stock of the new company is $25,000.

The reorganization is along cooperative lines, the employees of the firm all being made stockholders. This plan to make those in charge of the several departments jointly interested in the success of the progressive business principles which made the W. R. Badgett Mercantile Co. one of the strongest business institutions of Vinita. The officers of the company are: President, W. R. Badgett; Vice Pres., J. W. Sanders; Secretary, Lewis T. Martin; Treasurer, B. F. Ellis.

The directors of the company will consist of the above named officers and R. I. Blakeney, T. H. Badgett, Joo. N. Byrd, Jr. and Thos. W. Ridgway.

The broad and generous policy which inspired the change and which will give each employee a personal interest in the firm's success as well as a division of the profits, is sure to result in the new firm rapidly pushing forward to even a higher position in the business community than was occupied by its predecessor.

GENEROUS KINNISON.

Responds Quickly and Well to Appeal for Relief.

A check for $33.50 was received at the Chieftain office on Saturday from Geo. W. Siegel of Kinnison, representing the contribution of that town to the fund for the relief of the suffering fullbloods.

Learning of the pitiable conditions of the Indians through the columns of the Chieftain, Mr. Siegel and Mr. P. B. Kinnison circulated a subscription paper in the little town and the following gentlemen quickly responded:

P. B. Kinnison	$ 5.00
G. W. Siegel	5 00
Art Barker	5 00
E. Fitzgerald	5 00
W. H. Fields	2 50
S. K. Hurst	2 50
M. Holderman	5 00
W. C. Mayfield	2 50
W. H. Brown	1 00
Total	$33 50

The generous response shows Kinnison, while not large in population, to be very big in heart.

OIL AT WAGONER.

Good Flow of High Grade Lubricant Developed at Depth of 400 Feet.

A good flow of high grade oil has been developed in one of the Wagoner Gas, Oil and Mineral Company's wells at a depth of 400 feet.

While the well is not a gusher, the flow is sufficiently strong to send property values upward with a jump, and to create a feeling of elation among the promoters.

BILLS HELD UP.

Committee Fail to Agree on Disposition of Public Lands.

The house committee on territories took up the bills for the admission of Oklahoma, New Mexico and Arizona on Friday. The sub-committee in charge of these bills reported that a controversy had arisen over the provisions relating to public lands and that an agreement had not been reached. The committee decided to meet again Saturday and endeavor to agree upon provisions that will harmonize all of the elements interested.

When They Can Indulge.

Judge John L. McAtee, in the Comanche county district court has held that persons could not be prosecuted for selling liquor to Indians who are prisoners of war and not in charge of an Indian agent. Several whisky peddlers who are under arrest for selling whiskey to the Geronimo Apaches were ordered released. It is a penal offense in Oklahoma for any person to sell liquor to an Indian who is in charge of an Indian agent.

A Woman's Words of Praise.

Neustro Falls, Kans., Nov. 13, 1900. Peppin Syrup Co., Monticello, Ill.

Dear Sirs:—For almost fifteen years I suffered from indigestion, and last winter thought I would die, when my doctor, Dr. A. J. Leasure of this place, advised me to try Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which I did, and two bottles cured me. It not only relieved me, but it cured me so that I have not been troubled since. If anyone should offer me $500 for the good Syrup Pepsin has done me I would not think of taking it. No one can take your medicine without being convinced of its more than wonderful cures. I recommend it to all my friends as a laxative and stomach remedy. Yours with gratitude, Mrs. J. MORGAN. Sold by People's Drug Store.

MOON'S MEASURE

Providing For a Territorial Form of Government Favorably Reported.

HOUSE COMMITTEE

Unanimous in its Recommendation that the People of the Territory be Given a Voice in Their Government.

The members of the house committee on territories after considering the several measures providing for the government of the Indian territory, which have been referred to them, have unanimously decided upon the Moon bill, and will report that measure favorably to the house.

The bill provides for a governor to be appointed by the president, to serve four years to be not less than 30 years of age and a citizen of the territory. There also shall be a secretary appointed by the president, to serve four years. The legislature shall consist of a council and house of representatives. Each house shall be the judge of elections and qualifications of its own members. No member of the legislature shall, during the term for which he is elected, be appointed or elected to any office of the Territory of Jefferson.

No person holding office in or under or by the authority of the government of the United States or of the territory of Jefferson shall be eligible to the election to the legislature or to hold the position of a member of the same while holding said office. The senate and house are to choose their respective officers. The members of the legislature shall receive compensation at the rate of $4 per day, and 10 cents mileage.

The senate or council shall be composed of fifteen members and serve two years. Vacancies shall be filled at special elections.

The territory shall be divided into four senatorial districts as follows: First district, Chickasaw nation; Second district, Choctaw nation; Third district, Creek and Seminole; Fourth district, Cherokee nation and Quapaw agency. The house shall consist of thirty-three members with qualifications the same as those for the council.

For the purpose of representation in the house, the territory is divided into six districts as follows: First Chickasaw Nation; Second, Choctaw nation; Third, Creek nation; Fourth, Seminole; Fifth, Cherokee nation; Sixth, Quapaw Indian Agency.

The first regular session of the legislature shall be held on the second Monday in January, 1903, and biennially thereafter, in South McAlester. Appropriations shall be made biennially by the legislature. The bill was but slightly amended and is expected to pass the House without serious opposition. The passage of the Indian territory bill will make improbable any legislation concerning statehood for the territories.
